IN AN EAGLE'S TALONS.

Exciting Rescue of a Child that Had

Been Carried Off. A party of tourists witnessed a strange sight near Raton, N. M., a few days ago. While going by a little house near the road, they heard the frantic screams of a woman. Several of the men ran to the house and found her standing in the door, screaming .. My child, my child," and pointing to an outhouse, on top of which sat a big. bald eagle with a child about 1 year old in its talons. Before any of the party could shoot, the noise frightened the bird, and, picking up the child, he he flapped his enormous wings and started away. The weight of the child, however, was almost too much, and it was impossible for him to rise more than 50 feet above the ground. A Mr. Roberts in the party had a rifle, but feared to shoot, knowing that if the bird was killed the boy would fall to the ground and be dashed to pieces. The half-crazed mother and the party of tourists ran along, keeping as near as the eagle as possible. At last the mother implored Mr. Roberts to shoot the bird. Thinking the boy's death was almost a certainty in any event, Mr. Roberts took careful aim and fired. the eagle gave a scream and began beating the air viciously with one wing, while the other hung useless by its side. It was almost a minute before the strength of the bird gave out, and it began to fall, still holding the boy in iss talons. It came down, slowly circling about and getting lower and lower each time, and at last reached the ground. The mother rushed for her child, but the eagle began to fight, and it was not until the bird had been killed with the butt of the rifle that the child was released. The talons of the er gle had got well tied up in the child's clothes and this had saved the boy's life. He was black and blue in many places from being beat by the eagle's wing, but was not otherwise hurt. The mother told the tourists that the eagle nad been about the house for a long time, and had almost become a pet. It seemed to be much attached The Masonic Temple of Philadelphia to a dog owned by her husband, and cost $1,298,768.89, irrespective of spent much of its time near the dog's kennel.
